

“You have within you right now, everything you need to deal with whatever the world can throw at you.”

Brian Tracy

“Life is not so much about beginnings and endings as it is about going on and on. It is about muddling through the middle”

Anna Quindlen

“Those who restrain desire do so because their’s is weak enough to be restrained.”

William Blake

“There is no such thing in anyone's life as an unimportant day.”

Alexander Woollcott

“It is best to rise from life as from a banquet, neither thirsty nor drunken.”

Aristotle

“As for courage and will - we cannot measure how much of each lies within us, we can only trust there will be sufficient to carry through the trials which lie ahead.”

Andre Norton

“Hold a true friend with both your hands.”

Nigerian Proverb

“The ideal life is in our blood and never will be still. Sad will be the day for any man when he becomes contented with the thoughts he is thinking and the deeds he is doing -- where there is not forever beating at the doors of his soul some great desire to do something larger, which he knows that he was meant and made to do.”

Phillips Brooks

“Life is a series of experiences, each one of which makes us bigger, even though it is hard to realize this. For the world was built to develop character, and we must learn that the setbacks and grieves which we endure help us in our marching onward.”

Henry Ford

“Unless you can see yourself in success, it will not happen. You need to draw a picture of that success first, in your mind. See yourself doing what it takes to be successful and enjoying the fruits of that success in your minds eye.”

Andreas Simic

“The journey of a thousand miles begins with a single step.”

Anonymous

“As one goes through life one learns that if you don't paddle your own canoe, you don't move.”

Katherine Hepburn

“Lose this day loitering; t'will be the same old story tomorrow, and the next day more dilatory ... Each indecision brings its own delays and days are lost lamenting o'er lost days ... What you can do or think you can, begin it--boldness has genius, power and magic in it.”

Johann Wolfgang Von Goethe

“Tis easy enough to be pleasant, when life flows along like a song.
But the man worthwhile is the one who will smile, when everything goes dead wrong.”

Ella Wheeler Wilcox

“Creative power is that receptive attitude of expectancy, which makes a mold into which the plastic and as yet undifferentiated substance can flow and take the desired form.”

Thomas Troward

“Pay attention to what you see for what you perceive is your reality”

Michael McDermott

“Of course there is no formula for success, except perhaps an unconditional acceptance of life and what it brings.”

Arthur Rubinstein

“Don't be discouraged by a failure. It can be a positive experience. Failure is, in a sense, the highway to success, inasmuch as every discovery of what is false leads us to seek earnestly after what is true, and every fresh experience points out some form of error, which we shall afterwards carefully avoid.”

John Keats

“We all take different paths in life, but no matter where we go,
we take a little of each other everywhere.”

Tim McGraw

“Education comes from with: you get it by struggle and effort and thought”

Napoleon Hill

“The life of every man is a diary in which he means to write one story, and writes another.”

James Matthew Barrie

“Finish each day and be done with it. You have done what you could;
some blunders and absurdities have crept in; forget them as soon as you can.
Tomorrow is a new day; you shall begin it serenely and with too high a spirit to be encumbered with your old nonsense.”

Ralph Waldo Emerson

“What lies behind us and what lies ahead of us are tiny matters compared to what lives within us.”

Oliver Wendell Holmes

“We are what we repeatedly do.
Excellence, then, is not an act, but a habit.”

Aristotle

“Seventy percent of success in life is showing up.”

Woody Allen

“In theory one is aware that the earth revolves but in practice one does not perceive it, the ground on which one treads seems not to move, and one can live undisturbed. So it is with time in one's life.”

Marcel Proust

“I detest life-insurance agents;
they always argue that I shall some day die,
which is not so.”

Stephen Leacock

“Of course there is no formula for success except perhaps an unconditional acceptance of life and what it brings.”

Arthur Rubinstein

“He who has achieved success has worked well, laughed often and loved much”

Elbert Hubbard

“Life is an every day thing, it must be lived one day at a time.”

Andreas Simic

“If one advances confidently in the direction of his dreams and endeavors to live the life, which he has imagined, he will meet with a success unexpected in common hours.”

Henry David Thoreau
